

Forest Park Elementary School

Fourth Grade NewsWeek of December 11, 2023

A note from Ms. Hebert and Mrs. Williams...

- Hopefully you have already planned for your interview project! Be sure to take a look at it and bring your questions to class by Friday. This is the last week before school dismisses for winter break. Remember the project is due when we come back from Winter Break on Jan. 3rd.
- Make sure all jackets and water bottles are labeled with your child's name.

Word Study (test on Friday)

able/ible- can do anti- opposite or against vis,vid, vise- to see sub- under, below secondary in- in or not ten, tain, tin, tinu- to hold ion- act of, result of er, or- one who or that which cide, cise- cut

What's Going on in Class?

Language Arts- Hatchet by Gary Paulsen/ narrative writing

Word Study- ion, er/or, cide/cise

Math- Extending operations to fractions (Unit 3 Unit Test on Thursday)

Social Studies- Natural resources/regions

Science- Mountain ranges

Possible Dinner Table Conversation Starters

- What are some of the major events in Hatchet?
 - Tell me about your survival narrative.
- How will your narrative come to a natural conclusion?
- How can you decompose mixed numbers and fractions?
- How do tenths and hundredths relate? ($1/10 = 10/100$)

Important Dates:

Friday, Dec. 15th- Class parties @ 1:45

Mon., Dec. 18th- Wed., Jan. 3rd- Winter Break

Reminders:

- Bring a filled water bottle daily
- Make sure your child has a working set of headphones for the classroom.
- Guardians should review and initial agenda each night.
 - 8s multiplication fact fluency this week